

Study Somatic Movement and Dance with Dr. Martha Eddy in Ireland

Dynamic Embodiment Intensive at University College Cork: July 8 - July 12, 2019

Join us after for a Special Somatic Symposium at University College Cork, Department of Theatre on Saturday July 13!

Martha Eddy is a Registered Somatic Movement Therapist, Teacher of Body-Mind Centering® since 1984, and Certified Movement Analyst with a doctorate in Movement Science. She is the founder of the non-profit organization Moving For Life as well as the somatic movement therapy training Dynamic Embodiment. Martha is a passionate advocate for health through somatic awareness and active embodiment, with a lifelong commitment to the art of dance.

Learn about:

- Speaking about and teaching Somatic Movement to different audiences
 - Working with knee and elbow syndromes
 - Ethical issues in somatic practice
 - Pragmatic attention to sensuality, sexuality and gender within somatic inquiry
- And more! Stay tuned for announcements of open workshops, BodyMind Dancing classes, and other special opportunities.

Save the dates; we look forward to seeing you there!

Please reach out at officeofmarthaeddy@gmail.com with questions.

All course work can count towards certification in BodyMind Dancing and/or Dynamic Embodiment.